

Improved capability of the Government of Indonesia in evidence-informed policy making

Sufficient funding and quality expenditure on research

Improved availability of and access to data

High capacity for demanding and using evidence

High quality research and analysis

Enabling rules and regulations for producing, accessing, and using research

Regular interactions between producers and users of knowledge

KSI Phase 1 (2013-2017) building blocks for a healthy knowledge sector in Indonesia